

95TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

State of Illinois

2007 and 2008

HB1351

Introduced 2/20/2007, by Rep. Kenneth Dunkin

SYNOPSIS AS INTRODUCED:

20 ILCS 2605/2605-510 new

Amends the Department of State Police Law of the Civil Administrative Code of Illinois. Requires the Department of State Police to establish and administer, as a pilot program in 10 zip codes within the State, an automated wellness-check system. Provides that, under the system, senior citizens and individuals with a disability or illness may register with the Department to receive automated calls at an agreed-upon time and, if the dispatcher is unable to reach the registered person by telephone after 3 attempts in a 5-minute span, then a State or local law-enforcement officer will be sent to the person's home to check on his or her welfare. Effective immediately.
